

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

86. In all elections held pursuant to this act before proceeding to estimate and canvass the votes which shall have been received, the clerk of the board of election keeping the poll-book, shall state therein immediately after the last name, in words written at full length, the whole number of the names of the voters in the poll-book, in the following, or like form: "The whole number of the names of the persons whose votes have been received during this election is _____"; filling up the blank to conform to the fact; and the members of such board shall sign their names thereto.

Counting
the ballots.

87. Such board shall thereupon unlock and open the ballot-box; the envelopes containing the ballots shall then be taken singly and separately therefrom by the judge of election, who shall remove the same from the envelope, and while each ballot shall remain in his hands, he shall audibly and publicly read the same; and before taking another ballot from the box, shall deliver the ballot open with the official envelope to the inspector, to be examined and numbered; the inspector shall take and examine the same; and thereupon if he shall be satisfied that the same has been correctly read, write on the back thereof the number of such ballot from one onward, in the order in which the same shall have been taken from the box, and shall write a corresponding number upon the envelope from which the same was taken; the ballot shall then, before another envelope is opened, be returned to the envelope wherefrom it was taken; the inspector shall string the envelope and ballot as one ticket in the order in which the same shall be taken from the box and numbered, by means of a needle and twine to be provided for that purpose.

88. The clerks of such board, under the inspection and direction of such board, shall each make a list of the names of all persons for whom one or more votes shall have been given, designating the office which such person shall be voted for; and as each ballot shall be read he shall write the figure "1" opposite the name of each person whose name shall be contained therein, as designated for any office; when all the votes which shall have been received shall have been read, examined, numbered and strung, as above directed, such board shall carefully and truly cast up the votes given for each person for any office to be filled at such election.

89. No member of any board of registry and election shall sign any returns of election until after the completion of the counting of votes, and his personal examination of the tally-sheets to determine the results; the counting of the votes shall commence immediately upon the closing of the polls on the day of election; the board shall proceed to read and count the votes received, and shall complete the same without delay and without adjournment, and after completing the same shall audibly and publicly announce the result thereof, particularly specifying the whole number of the voters in the poll-book, the name of each person for whom any vote shall have been given for any office to be filled by such election, and the number of votes given for each person for the office designated for him by said votes; the counting of all ballots at any election shall be open and public, but not to the extent that the number present shall hinder, delay or inconvenience the election officers in counting the ballots and ascertaining the result.

91. If, in canvassing and estimating the votes, the number of ballots shall be found to exceed the number of the names of the voters in the poll-book, then the ballots which shall remain in the box, after canvassing and estimating as many ballots as there are such names, shall be deemed and taken to be null and of no effect; if on opening any envelope it shall be found to contain more than one ballot, or if any ballot shall be wholly blank, then and in every such case such ballots shall be deemed and taken to be null and of no effect; and in every case in which a ballot shall be declared null and of no effect, the same shall not be canvassed, estimated or numbered, but all such ballots shall be returned to the envelope wherein they were found, and on the face of such envelope shall be written the words "rejected ballot"; and the said envelope and ballot shall then be strung in the same manner in which the other envelopes and ballots are directed to be strung, but on a different twine.

92. If, in canvassing and estimating the votes, any ballot or ballots shall be found to contain more names for any office than there are persons to be elected to fill such office, then in every such case the ballot or ballots shall be deemed and taken to be null and of no effect, so far as respects the office for which there are more names than there are persons to be elected to fill such office, and no further.

159. Whenever any candidate at any election shall have reason to believe that an error has been made by any board of election or of canvassers in counting the vote or declaring the result of such election, whereby the result of such election has been changed, such candidate may within ten days after such election apply to any justice of the supreme court, who shall be authorized to order and cause upon such terms as he may deem proper a recount of the whole or such part of the votes as he may determine to be publicly made under his direction by the county board of elections, after due notice to the parties interested of the time and place of such recount; and if it shall appear upon such recount that an error has been made, sufficient to change the result of such election, then such justice shall revoke the certificate of election already issued to any person, and shall issue in its place another certificate in favor of the party who shall be found to have received a majority of the votes cast at such election, which latter certificate shall supersede all others, and entitle the holder thereof to the same rights and privileges as if said certificate had been originally issued by the canvassing board; said justice shall have power to decide all disputed questions which the said board shall fail to decide by a majority vote thereof.

160. Whenever any such certificate shall be issued by any justice of the supreme court, the same shall be filed with the clerk of the county or municipality in and for which such election was held; and such clerk shall make and certify, under his hand and official seal, a copy thereof, and shall without delay deliver such copy to the person who shall be so declared elected; and in case of an election for senator, members of the assembly or any county officers, the county clerk shall within five days thereafter transmit to the secretary of state at Trenton another copy of such certificate, signed by him and attested by his official seal.

CONTESTED ELECTIONS FOR COUNTY, TOWNSHIP, CITY OR OTHER MUNICIPAL OFFICES.

Hearing of contested elections.

162. The several circuit courts of this state shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all cases in which the election of any officer or officers of any county, city, borough, village, township or other municipality may be contested, and for that purpose the said courts shall always be open; such contest shall be commenced by filing a petition therefor within thirty days after any such election shall be held.

Grounds of contest.

163. Such election may be contested upon one or more of the following grounds, viz.:

Fraud, &c.

I. Malconduct, fraud or corruption on the part of the members of any board of election in any election district, or of any member of the board of county canvassers, sufficient to change the result;

Ineligible.

II. When the incumbent was not eligible to the office at the time of the election;

Convicted of certain crimes.

III. When the incumbent had been duly convicted before such election of any crime which would render him incompetent to exercise the right of suffrage, and the incumbent had not been pardoned at the time of the election;

Bribery.

IV. When the incumbent has given or offered to any elector or any member of a board of election, clerk or canvasser, any bribe or reward, in money, property or thing of value, for the purpose of procuring his election;

Illegal voting.

V. When illegal votes have been received, or legal votes rejected at the polls sufficient to change the result;

Error in canvassing.

VI. For any error in any board of canvassers in counting the votes or declaring the result of the election, if such error would change the result.

Other causes

VII. For any other cause which shows that another was the person legally elected.

Definition of "incumbent"

164. The term "incumbent" in this act means the person whom the canvassers declare elected; but in case of a tie vote either party may contest the election, in which case the term "incumbent" means the person having an equal number of votes with the contestant.

Misconduct of election not sufficient to set aside election.

165. When the misconduct complained of is on the part of the members of the board of election in any election district, it shall not be held sufficient to set aside the election, unless the rejection of the vote of such district would change the result as to that office.

166. The contestant shall file a petition in writing signed by himself and at least fifteen qualified electors of the county, township, or municipality, in and for which such election was held, as the case may be, setting forth one or more of the causes specified and the particular circumstances of the case, duly verified by the oaths or affirmation of at least two of said petitioners, which shall be filed with the clerk of said court, together with a bond to the incumbent, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the justice holding such circuit, in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned to pay all costs in case the election be confirmed, or the petition be dismissed or the prosecution fail.

Notice given by contestant, and bond.

167. When the reception of illegal, or the rejection of legal votes is alleged as a cause of contest, the names of the persons who so voted, or whose votes were rejected, with the election district where they voted, or offered to vote, shall be set forth in the petition, if known; the court shall appoint a suitable time for hearing such complaint, not more than thirty nor less than fifteen days thereafter; and the contestant shall cause a notice of such trial, with a copy of the contestant's petition, to be served on the incumbent at least ten days before the day set for trial.

Regarding reception or rejection of votes.

168. The trial shall proceed at the time appointed unless postponed for good cause shown by either party by affidavit; the terms of which postponement shall be in the discretion of the court; provided, the court may, for its own necessity or convenience, adjourn to such time, not more than thirty days thereafter, as it may see fit, of which adjournment the parties interested shall take notice.

Trial at appointed time.

Proviso.

169. The proceedings shall be similar to those in an action at law so far as practicable, but shall be under the control and direction of the court, which shall hear and determine the matter without a jury, with power to order any amendments in the petition or proceedings as to form, and to allow adjournments to any time not more than thirty days thereafter for the benefit of either party, on such terms as shall seem reasonable to the court, the grounds for such adjournment being shown by affidavit.

Proceedings as

Attendance of witnesses and production of ballots, &c., compulsory.

170. The said court shall have authority and power to compel the attendance of any officer of such election, and of any other person capable of testifying concerning the same, and also to compel the production of all ballot-boxes, books, papers, tally lists, ballots and other documents which may be required at such hearing; the style, form and manner of service of process and papers, and the fees of officers and witnesses, shall be the same as in the circuit court in other cases, as far as the nature of the case admits.

Witness' qualification as voter.

171. The court may require any person called as a witness who voted at such election, to answer touching his qualification as a voter, and if the court, from his examination, or otherwise, is satisfied that he was not a qualified voter in the election district where he voted, then the court can compel him to answer for whom he voted; and if the witness answers such questions no part of his testimony on the trial shall be used against him in any criminal proceeding.

Liability for costs.

172. The contestant and incumbent shall be liable to the officers and witnesses for the costs made by them respectively; but if the election be confirmed, or the petition dismissed, or the prosecution fail, judgment shall be rendered against the contestant for costs; and if the judgment be against the incumbent, or the election be set aside, then he shall pay the costs at the discretion of the court; and after the entry of the judgment of the court the costs may be collected by attachment or otherwise.

Judgment given by court.

173. The court shall pronounce judgment whether the incumbent or any contestant was duly elected, and the person so declared elected will be entitled to his certificate; if the judgment be against the incumbent, and he has already received the certificate of election, the judgment shall annul it; if the court find that no person was duly elected, the judgment shall be that the election be set aside.

In case judgment is against party holding over.

174. When either the contestant or incumbent shall be in possession of the office, by holding over or otherwise, the court shall, if the judgment be against the party in possession of the office, and in favor of his antagonist, issue and order to carry into effect its judgment, which order shall be under the seal of the court, and shall command the sheriff of the county to put the successful party into possession of the office without delay, and to deliver to him all books, papers and effects belonging to the same.

175. The party against whom judgment is rendered may appeal for error of law only, within twenty days, to the supreme court, but such appeal shall not supersede the execution of the judgment of the court, unless the party so appealing shall become bound to the other party by recognizance, as provided in the thirteenth section of the act entitled "An act respecting writs of error" (Revision), approved March twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and seventy-four; provided, the amount of such recognizance shall be fixed by the judge who presided at the trial, and shall be at least double the probable compensation of such officer for six months.

Appeal may be taken to supreme court.

Proviso.

176. Such appeal shall take precedence over all other causes upon the calendar, and shall be set down for hearing, and determined upon the first day of the term, unless otherwise ordered by the court for its convenience; provided, that the appellant shall give ten days' notice of argument, unless the judgment of the circuit court shall not have been given in time to notice such appeal for trial on the first day of the term, in which case the same may be noticed for any other day in the term, and shall have the same precedence on such other day.

Appeal to have precedence.

Proviso.

177. If, upon appeal, the judgment be affirmed, the judge who presided at the trial, or in his absence or inability to act, any justice of the supreme court, shall order the judgment of said circuit court to be enforced, if the party against whom judgment is rendered is in possession of the office; and the proceedings on the recognizance shall be as provided for in other cases in said supreme court.

If appeal be affirmed.

Description of bonds.

1. The common council, board of aldermen or governing body of any city in this state may, by ordinance, authorize the issuing of municipal bonds for the purpose of obtaining money from the sale thereof for the permanent improvement of the streets and highways of such city with permanent and durable material of a kind to be determined in each instance by the body or board of any city charged with the improvements of streets before the work is commenced, to an amount not exceeding ten dollars per capita for each of the inhabitants of said city, according to the last state census, but not more than one hundred thousand dollars of said total amount shall be raised by the issue and the sale of bonds in one year; that said bonds may be issued before or after the work is commenced; that the legislative body of any city or other body charged with the duty of improving the streets of any city may improve any street or highway, or portion thereof, with such pavements as aforesaid with the money obtained from the sale of said bonds; the streets to be improved in any one year shall be designated by ordinance together with the kind of pavement proposed to improve them with; all work, however, shall be given out upon contract to the lowest responsible bidder, and only after bids therefor have been solicited and received; and the said common council, board of aldermen or other governing body as aforesaid shall have the right to reject any and all of such bids.

2. The bonds authorized to be issued as aforesaid shall be made payable at any time within ten years from the date of the same, and shall draw interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, and shall be of such denomination as the board or legislative body hereinbefore authorized to issue the same may determine, and all such bonds shall be signed by the mayor and such other officer as the board or body issuing the same may determine, and they may either be registered or coupon bonds; all of the said bonds shall be numbered and a register of such numbers, the date of issuing and the time of payment of the same shall be made by the comptroller, or other proper financial officer, in a book to be provided for that purpose, and none of said bonds shall be sold for an amount less than its par value; that the interest on the bonds shall be raised annually by taxation, and the principal of said bonds shall be paid by the city at maturity, and that money derived from assessments made as hereinafter provided for upon the property benefited by such improvements shall when collected be held as a fund toward the payment of the bonds issued for the purpose of making such improvements.

Principal and interest.

3. After the improvement or improvements have been completed, the said board having charge of said work shall apply to the court of common pleas of the county wherein such city is situated for the appointment of commissioners to estimate and assess such benefits, of the time and place of which application notice shall be given by ten days' publication in two newspapers printed or circulating in such city, at which time and place, or at such other time and place as the court shall designate, said court shall, without unnecessary delay, appoint three commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of the city making the application, to estimate and assess the said benefits; the said court shall have power to remove any commissioner, and also to appoint and fill any vacancy that may occur in the office of any commissioner from any cause.

Commissioners appointed by court.

4. The said commissioners, before entering upon the execution of the duties required of them by this act, shall take and subscribe, before some person duly authorized to administer the same, an oath or affirmation that they will make all estimates and assessments required of them fairly, legally and equitably, according to the best of their skill and understanding, which oath or affirma-

5. The said commissioners having thus qualified shall give notice under the direction of the said court of the time and place when and where they will hear any persons in interest, who may present themselves to be heard, and at such time and place and at such other times and places to which they may adjourn for that purpose, the said commissioners shall attend and shall give a public hearing to those persons who may desire to be heard; the said commissioners shall have power to examine witnesses under oath, to be administered by any one of them, and to enter upon and view any premises that they may deem necessary, and to adjourn from time to time at their discretion, or as directed by said court; they shall use diligent efforts to ascertain the names of the owners of the lands and real estate benefited by the improvements as aforesaid, and shall state the same in the report hereinafter mentioned, but the failure to so ascertain the name of any such owner, or to state the same incorrectly, or the omission of any such name from the said report, shall not be deemed to invalidate the said assessment, nor to be a bar to the collection of the same.

Report.

6. After having given opportunity as aforesaid for a public hearing of the persons in interest, and having viewed the premises to be benefited by said improvement, the said commissioners shall make a report in writing of their estimates and assessments to the said court, accompanied by a survey and map prepared by the city surveyor or engineer, under their direction, showing the lots or parcels of land and real estate peculiarly benefited by such improvement; the said report shall state the cost of the whole work, the portion, if any, assessed upon the city at large, and shall give the names, so far as ascertained, of the owners of the said lots or parcels of lands and real estate, and the amount of the assessment to each owner for each of such lots or parcels of land and real estate for the said benefits, which assessments shall in each case be in proportion as near as may be to an amount as will be equal to the amount of benefits actually acquired by the lands and real estate bordering on any street or highway or portion thereof so improved by reason of such improvement; in case the costs and expenses of such work shall exceed the amount of said benefits, the excess thereof shall be paid by the city at large and raised by general tax; in no case shall any property or owner thereof be assessed beyond the amount of benefit actually derived from said improvement.

7. Upon the coming-in of any such report, signed by the said commissioners, or any two of them, said court shall cause such notice to be given as it shall deem proper of the time and place of hearing any objections that may be made to such assessment, and after hearing any matter that may be alleged against the same, the said court, either by rule or order, shall confirm the said report, or shall refer the same to the same commissioners for revision and correction, or to new commissioners, to be appointed by the said court, forthwith to consider the subject-matter thereof, and the said commissioners, to whom such report shall be so referred by the court, shall return the same corrected and revised, or a new report to be made by them in the premises to the said court, without unnecessary delay, and the same being so returned shall be confirmed or again referred by the said court in the manner aforesaid, as right and justice shall require, and so from time to time until a report shall be made or returned, which the said court shall confirm; such report when so confirmed shall be final and conclusive as well upon the said city as upon the owners of any land and real estate affected thereby; the said court shall thereupon cause a certified copy of such report and the accompanying map to be transmitted to the clerk of the said city, with a certified copy of the rule or order of said court confirming the same, which shall be forthwith delivered by the said clerk to the officer of such city charged with the duty of collecting assessments for improvements.

Payment of principal and interest.

10. For the purpose of discharging the said bonds as they mature and for the payment of the interest thereon, the board of aldermen, common council or other governing body as aforesaid may provide annually by taxation in the annual tax levy of such city, such sum as will be sufficient to pay the interest of the said bonds hereby authorized to be issued as it falls due and for the creation of a sinking fund for the payment of the principal of the said bonds when they shall mature, which sum so provided shall be collected annually by the collecting officer of said city, and such portion of said sum which shall have been collected for the interest on said bonds shall be paid by him into the treasury of said city and such portion thereof which shall have been collected for said sinking fund shall be paid by him into the sinking fund of said city.

inventory and appraisement shall be annexed to and returned with the writ, and such writ shall bind the property attached from the time of executing the same ; and upon the return of such attachment the said judge of the district court shall appoint a day for the hearing of the said cause, not less than twenty days from the issuing of the said writ ; on or before which day so appointed the plaintiff in the said attachment shall file a copy of his account or state of demand, and if the creditor shall make sufficient proof of the debt due to him, the said court shall give judgment therein for the plaintiff and award execution thereon to the constable against the effects of the defendant, as in other cases cognizable before said court, but the effects of the defendant thereon taken shall not be sold in less than one month (unless the same are perishable) to the end that the debtor or his friend may redeem the same, and in the meantime the same shall be safely kept in such manner as the court shall direct, or the same may be disposed of if the situation of the property, the expenses of its care, or its nature shall require, whereupon, on the written order of the court, on application for that purpose, and filed with the clerk, execution shall issue immediately for the sale of the property attached.

70. It shall be the duty of the plaintiff forthwith, after the issuing of such attachment, to advertise, in three of the most public places in the county, that an attachment has been taken out from such district court against such absconding or absent debtor, in order that any person having a greater demand against such debtor than is cognizable before said district court may have an opportunity to take out an attachment for the recovery of the same.

Plaintiff must advertise after issuing writ.

71. It shall be lawful for the defendant in any attachment issued out of any district court, on or before the day appointed for the hearing of the said cause, to cause his appearance to be entered, by filing with the clerk a bond to the plaintiff, executed by one or more sufficient sureties, being freeholders and residents in the county in which such attachment shall issue, in double the value of the property attached, conditioned for the due and safe return of the goods and chattels, rights and credits, moneys and effects seized and taken

The defendant in any attachment issued out of a district court, instead of entering his appearance by filing with the clerk a bond, may, if he so elect, enter his appearance at any time after the executing of the writ of attachment and before the hearing of the cause by filing with the clerk a statement signed by the defendant or his attorney, that the defendant enters his appearance to the action and intends to defend the same, whereupon the court shall forthwith fix a time for the trial, not less than three nor more than ten days from the filing of such statement, and the defendant or his attorney shall forthwith in writing notify the plaintiff or his attorney of the day so fixed; the plaintiff shall file a copy of his account or state of demand on or before the time so fixed, and thereafter the cause may be adjourned and shall be conducted in all things in like manner, and the court shall have like jurisdiction of the parties, as if the action had been commenced by summons; the effects, rights and credits of the defendant shall remain in the custody of the officer who executed the writ, subject to the lien of the attachment during the pendency of the action, but if judgment be given for the defendant, the same shall thereby be released from such lien and restored to the defendant, and the defendant shall have execution for his costs; if judgment be given for the plaintiff, the court shall award execution thereof against the effects of the defendant, which execution may be satisfied by sale of the effects taken in attachment or of any other effects of the defendant, and shall be returned in the same time and manner as other executions are returned; and the provision in the sixty-ninth section of this act, that the effects shall not be sold in less than one month, shall not apply to cases where the defendant's appearance is entered under this section.

73. It shall be lawful for the defendant or any garnishee to make, execute and file with the clerk of the court a bond with one or more sufficient sureties to be approved by the court to the plaintiff in attachment in double the sum sworn to on the issuing of the writ, conditioned for the payment of such moneys as may be adjudged plaintiff, and thereupon it shall be lawful for the court to order the lien of the attachment to be released, and the suit shall thereupon proceed as though the defendant had entered his appearance according to the seventy-first section of this act.

Defendant or garnishee may give bond for payment of moneys adjudged plaintiff.

74. After filing either of the said bonds, as above provided by sections seventy-one or seventy-three, or the entry of defendant's appearance, the said defendant shall file his plea, copy of account, or set-off, if any he have, and the said cause shall and may be adjourned and conducted in all things in like manner as if the same had been commenced by summons under this act.

Proceedings after filing bond.

75. The plaintiff in such attachment, notwithstanding the garnishee's denial of his having any moneys, goods, chattels or effects of the defendant in his custody or possession, or of his being indebted to him, may, if he really believes that the said garnishee hath such moneys, goods, chattels or effects in his custody or possession, or that he is indebted to the defendant and is in fear of the said garnishee's absconding before judgment and execution can be had against such garnishee, and shall make oath or affirmation thereof, and deliver the same to the clerk as aforesaid, institute a suit against the said garnishee, by summons, or, in case of fraud duly proved, by warrant, and if he shall make sufficient proof of the debt due to him, and also of the effects, right or credits in the hands of the garnishee, the said court shall give judgment therein for the plaintiff, and award and issue execution therefor to the constable or sergeant-at-arms against the garnishee, as in other cases cognizable by district courts in accordance with this act; and if the plaintiff shall not make sufficient proof of the effects, rights or credits in the hands of the garnishee, he shall pay the garnishee his costs, and, if need be, execution shall issue out of said court against the plaintiff for the same; any moneys realized on the execution against a garnishee shall be by the constable paid to the clerk of the court to await the order of the court, on any judgment or proceedings in the cause under the writ of attachment.

In case of non-appearance.

76. Where judgment shall be entered against the defendant a scire facias shall (except in cases under the seventy-fifth section of this act) issue against the garnishee to show cause at such time as the court shall appoint why the plaintiff should not have execution of the money due by such garnishee to, or held by him for the defendant, and in his hands, or the value of the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the defendant, which were in the custody or possession of the garnishee at the time of executing the writ of attachment, and if the garnishee shall appear at the return of said scire facias, and on oath or otherwise to the satisfaction of the court, confess the amount of the debt due from him to the defendant, or the true value of the defendant's goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were as aforesaid in his possession, and pay the same to the clerk thereof, then the said garnishee shall be acquitted and discharged from the debt or amount due by him to the defendant in attachment or the value of the goods and chattels and rights and credits aforesaid, with costs; and if the said writ of scire facias having been returned served, or in case service cannot be made, such notice of same having been published as the court may direct; and the garnishee shall not appear, confess and pay as aforesaid, then the court shall determine the amount of the debt due from such garnishee, or the value of the goods and chattels, rights and credits so as aforesaid in his custody and possession, and judgment shall be thereupon entered for such amount, with costs, against the garnishee in favor of the plaintiff in attachment, and if the garnishee shall appear at the return of the scire facias and plead thereto that he had no goods and chattels, rights and credits of the defendant in his custody or possession, either at the time of executing the writ of attachment or at any time since, or that he was not indebted to the defendant, and the plaintiff on trial shall prove that he was indebted or had such goods and chattels or rights and credits, then the court shall find for the plaintiff and assess damages to the amount or value of such debt, goods or chattels, rights or credits, with costs, and judgment shall be entered accordingly, and execution may be issued against the goods and chattels of such garnishee, but if the court shall determine against the plaintiff and in favor of the garnishee, then he shall recover costs against the plaintiff and have execution for the same.

77. Any writ of attachment against any absconding or absent debtor, which may be issued out of the supreme court or any circuit court or court of common pleas, shall be a supersedeas to any attachment issued by any district court of this state, undetermined at the time of serving the said writ; and it shall and may be lawful for the sheriff or his deputy to take into his possession all goods and chattels attached by the constable or sergeant-at-arms, as fully, to all intents and purposes, as if the attachment issued out of said district court had not been served, but the plaintiff in said attachment shall proceed to judgment in said district court in the same manner as if there had been no supersedeas, and upon proof of such judgment before the auditor appointed by such higher court, or the sheriff, if no auditor be appointed, such judgment debtor in the district court shall be paid his judgment in preference to any other claims against the defendant established before said auditor, or the court issuing said attachment to the sheriff; provided, however, that no constable shall be obliged to remove any goods taken into his custody by virtue of any attachment after the same shall have been seized and attached by the sheriff, and when an attachment issued by any district court as aforesaid shall be superseded by an attachment out of a higher court, the plaintiff in the attachment so superseded shall be entitled to be first paid out of the property attached the full amount of his debt and legal costs and expenses which may have accrued on the attachment so superseded.

In case of perishable property.

79. In case property of a defendant shall be attached which shall be perishable the court, upon affidavit or affidavits setting forth sufficient facts, may make such order as it shall deem proper for a sale of same, upon such notice of sale as the court may direct.

80. It shall be the duty of the constable, or sergeant-at-arms, by whom any writ of attachment shall be executed, to deliver any property attached by virtue of such writ to the person in whose possession same shall be found, upon the execution, in the presence of the officer, of a bond with one or more sufficient sureties, to the plaintiff, by such person, conditioned that the defendant shall perform the judgment of the court in the action, or that the property or its value shall be forthcoming and subject to the order of the court for the satisfaction of such judgment.

81. In all cases of an attachment hereafter issued by any district court of any city of this state, when an affidavit shall be filed on behalf of the defendant, setting forth facts which would render said attachment illegal or void, it shall be the duty of said district court, upon a motion to quash the writ of attachment, to try said facts without requiring the defendant to file a bond according to the requirements of this act, and to give judgment on said motion, provided notice of such motion, and a copy of the affidavit filed, shall have been served on the plaintiff in attachment, or his attorney.

Motion to quash without filing bond.

IN ACTION ON BILLS AND NOTES.

82. In all actions in any district court in this state upon bills of exchange, promissory notes or other written instruments, any of the parties to which are designated by the initial letter or letters, or some contraction of the christian or first name or names, it shall be sufficient in every affidavit to hold to bail and in the process to designate such party by the same initial letter or letters, or contraction of the christian or first name or names, instead of stating the christian or first name or names in full.

Initials and abbreviations of christian names sufficient.

83. The holder of any bill of exchange or promissory note, instead of bringing separate action against the parties separately liable thereon, may include all or any of them in one action, and proceed to judgment and execution in the same manner as though all the defendants were joint contractors, subject, however, to the qualifications hereinafter provided.

All parties liable may be included in one action.

84. In every such action the plaintiff shall annex to the state of demand a notice containing a copy of the bill or note with the endorsements, and stating that the

In case judgment be rendered against one defendant and in favor of another.

85. In any such action judgment may be rendered for the plaintiff against some one or more of the defendants, and also in favor of some one or other of the defendants against the plaintiff, according as the rights and liabilities of the respective parties shall appear, either upon confession, default or trial; and any person sued shall be entitled to set off his demands against the plaintiff in the same manner as though such defendant had been sued in the form heretofore used; and when judgment shall be rendered in favor of any defendant, he shall recover his costs against the plaintiff in the same manner as though judgment had been rendered for all the defendants.

When set-off equals or exceeds amount allowed plaintiff.

86. If upon trial of any such action, the whole amount of the set-off allowed shall equal or exceed the amount allowed to the plaintiff, then, in the first case, the verdict or judgment shall be in favor of the defendants generally, and in the last case for the excess; and in all cases the verdict or judgment shall certify the amount allowed to each defendant as a set-off.

Rights of several defendants to remain as determined by judgment.

87. The rights and responsibilities of the several parties to any such bill or note as between each other, shall remain as heretofore, saving only the rights of the plaintiff, so far as they may have been determined by the judgment; and any one or more of the defendants shall be entitled to the testimony of any co-defendant as a witness in all cases where he or they would be entitled to his testimony had the suit been brought in the form heretofore used; and the plaintiff shall be entitled to the testimony of any defendant as a witness in all cases where he would be entitled to his testimony against the other parties to the bill or note, had the suit been brought in the form heretofore used.

88. Whenever an execution against goods and chattels shall issue in any such suits or actions upon a bill or note, as hereinbefore provided, it shall be the duty of the constable or sergeant-at-arms, after making a levy upon the property liable to execution, to make the money out of property of the person or persons principally liable as between themselves for its payment, if it can be done before selling the property of the person or persons secondarily liable, and for the information of such officer, it shall be the duty of the clerk of said court, under and by the direction of the judge thereof, to indorse on the execution of the order in which the defendants, according to the terms of the bill or note, are liable as between themselves for its payment; and if judgment be paid by a defendant or defendants secondarily liable as between themselves, it shall not be considered satisfied as against the defendant or defendants liable over on the bill or note to the defendant making such payment, but he shall have (on application to said district court, giving two days' notice thereof to the other parties to the judgment and subject to such regulations as may be imposed) the full benefit and control of such judgment for the purpose of compelling repayment, and on this application the said court may order an issue to try the question in controversy.

91. In cases arising under section one hundred of this act, no justice of the supreme court shall grant or allow any certiorari to remove any judgment, order or proceeding to be had or made by virtue of this act, unless the party applying for such certiorari shall present to the said justice reason for the allowance thereof, drawn up and subscribed by himself or some attorney-at-law, to be deemed by the said justice to contain a probable cause of reversal; and unless such applicant shall also enter into bond to the other party in the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, with one or more sufficient surety or sureties, being freeholders and residents of this state, conditioned that such applicant shall prosecute the said certiorari in the supreme court, shall pay the yearly value of the premises in dispute from the time of granting the said certiorari to the determination of the same, together with the costs of the suit before the court below, and such further costs as may be taxed if the judgment be affirmed; and shall in all things stand to and abide the judgment of the supreme court respecting the judgment, order or proceeding given or made by the court below; which bond, together with the reasons, shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court for the benefit and use of the obligee.

Rehearing may be ordered.

93. No judgment, order or proceeding of any district court shall be reversed for any irregularity or informality in the proceedings of such court unless such irregularity or informality tends to defeat or impair the substantial right or interest of the prosecutor in certiorari, and no judgment, order or proceeding of any district court removed by certiorari to the supreme court shall be reversed in the whole on account of any error or mistake made by the court in which such judgment may have been rendered in the entering, calculating or awarding of the costs of suit, but such error or mistake the supreme court is hereby empowered to correct without costs to either party.

Judgment not to be reversed for error unless it impairs rights.

94. If any judgment, order or proceeding had or made by virtue of this act shall, on removal by certiorari, be affirmed by the supreme court, the prosecutor in certiorari shall pay to the defendant all costs arising on such suit in said supreme court, for which the party entitled to such costs may have execution, to be issued out of the supreme court, against the body or goods and chattels of the adverse party; but if such judgment be reversed the prosecutor in certiorari shall be entitled to costs, and in case any judgment shall be affirmed in part and reversed in part, neither party shall pay costs in certiorari to the other, unless the court shall otherwise order, and any writ of certiorari shall be determined by the supreme court at the first term after due return thereto shall be made, or be dismissed with costs, unless the court shall think proper to continue the same to the next or some subsequent term.

Bond may be assigned to defendant.

125. The constable or sergeant-at-arms taking bonds as is mentioned in the preceding section shall, at the request and costs of the defendant, assign the same to the defendant, under his hand and seal; and if the bond so taken and assigned be forfeited, the defendant may, in his own name, bring an action and recover

126. The constable, or sergeant-at-arms, to whom any writ of replevin shall be delivered, shall take the goods and chattels whereof deliverance is sought, into his own custody and possession, notwithstanding any claim of property therein by the defendant, and shall proceed to make deliverance thereof to the plaintiff in the said writ named, unless the said defendant shall, within twenty-four hours after service of the writ of replevin upon him in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, deliver to such constable, or sergeant-at-arms, a written claim of property, specifying the goods and chattels so claimed, and shall also, within the time aforesaid, deliver to such constable, or sergeant-at-arms, a bond, with one or more sufficient sureties, being freeholders and residents in the county, and in double the value of the goods and chattels so claimed, with condition to deliver the said goods and chattels in as good condition as the same were at the time of making such claim, to the plaintiff or his lawful representatives, if the same shall be adjudged to the plaintiff; which bond the said constable, or sergeant-at-arms, is hereby required, at the request and costs of the plaintiff or his lawful representative, to assign to such plaintiff or his lawful representative, who are hereby authorized, if the said bond shall be forfeited, to bring an action, and recover thereon, in his or their own name.

Bond may be assigned and sued on.

127. In case the property replevied shall be delivered by the constable, or sergeant-at-arms, to the defendant, on his presenting a written claim of property and giving bonds as above provided, the constable, or sergeant-at-arms, shall make return of the facts to the court, and shall annex the said claim of property to the said writ, and return the same therewith; and the said suit shall be proceeded in and determined in the same manner, in all respects, as if such claim of property had not been made; and, if the plaintiff recover, the court or the jury, if there be a jury, shall find the value of the goods and chattels as well as the damages of the plaintiff, and the plaintiff shall have judgment thereon in damages as well for the value of the goods and chattels as for taking and detaining them; and upon such judgment, the plaintiff (in addition to his remedy on the bond) may have execution against the goods and chattels of the defendant in replevin, and for want of such goods and chattels an execution against the body of the defendant in the nature of a capias ad satisfaciendum.

Execution thereon.

Penalty for unlawful delivery.

128. If a constable, or sergeant-at-arms, to whom any writ of replevin shall be delivered, shall make deliverance to the plaintiff of the goods and chattels mentioned in such writ, or of any part thereof, before he shall have served a copy of the said writ upon the defendant as aforesaid, or within twenty-four hours after such service, or shall omit or refuse, upon the tender of such claim of property and bond as hereinbefore mentioned, to restore the goods and chattels so claimed to the defendant, such constable, or sergeant-at-arms, shall be answerable to such defendant for all damages he shall sustain therefrom.

Officer may break open building.

129. If any person shall take the goods and chattels of another, and put them into any stable, building, house or place of strength, and the person from whom the same goods or chattels shall be taken sues for a replevin thereof, the constable, or sergeant-at-arms, shall solemnly demand deliverance thereof at the stable, building, house or place where the same are detained; and if neither the taker nor any person on behalf of such taken, shall, upon demand, deliver the same, or if no person shall come upon such demand to deliver the same, the constable, or sergeant-at-arms, shall break open such stable, building, house or place of strength, and make replevin according to the writ.

Who may be joined as parties.

130. All such persons as by the common law may join the plaintiffs or defendants in the said writs of replevin, as well without process as by process, shall and may join the said plaintiffs or defendants, as well without process as by process, and have like defences and like advantages in all things (defences of disclaimer only excepted), as they might have had by the common law before the making of this act.

131. Where there is a sole plaintiff, or defendant, if either die, the action shall not abate; but the death of such party being suggested upon the record, the name of the executor or administrator of such deceased party being entered upon the record, the action shall proceed to final judgment at the suit of the plaintiff, or if he be dead, at the suit of his executor or administrator against the defendant, or if he be dead, against his executor or administrator.

Death not to abate action.

132. The parties to such action of replevin, and their executors or administrators, shall have the like remedy upon any bond given pursuant to this act as the original party would have had if both parties were living at the time of pursuing such remedy; and the constable or sergeant-at-arms taking any bond in an action of replevin, shall assign the same to the then plaintiff, in case the original plaintiff would have been entitled to the same, if there had been no death, or to the then defendant in case the original defendant would have been entitled to the same if there had been no death.

Executors have same remedies as original party.

133. The plaintiff shall file his state of demand on or before the return day of the summons and the case shall proceed as other actions, without further pleadings; on the trial of the cause, the defendant may set up any and all defences to which he may be entitled; the plaintiff shall bring on the trial of the cause, as in other actions, and shall be liable to judgment of nonsuit for failure to do so, and in case of a trial the plaintiff may set up any and all defences to which he may be entitled.

Pleadings when filed.

Plaintiff to bring on trial.

134. If the plaintiff shall be nonsuit for failure to file his state of demand, or to bring on the trial of the cause as required by law, the court, besides a judgment of nonsuit, shall, in all cases, except where the taking was a distress for rent, award a return of the goods and chattels to the defendant if they have not been re-delivered to him by the constable, or sergeant-at-arms; and the defendant shall thereupon be entitled to his costs, and the same remedy in all respects upon the replevin bond, as he would be entitled to on the awarding of the return of the goods and chattels on the verdict of a jury.

If plaintiff nonsuit, court may award a return.

135. In any action of replevin, where the goods or chattels replevied shall not be delivered to the plaintiff, Defendant claiming property in himself not to claim property in another.

In case of distress if plaintiff be non-suit, etc.

Trial by jury.

In cases except distress for rent.

by reason of a claim thereto made by the defendant, of property in himself, it shall not be lawful for the defendant to make any defense, justifying the taking of the same as the property of any person other than himself.

136. In all cases where the goods and chattels have been taken as a distress for rent, if the plaintiff in replevin shall be nonsuit or judgment be rendered in favor of the defendant on the trial of the cause, and the defendant shall make a suggestion in the nature of an avowry or cognizance for such rent, the court upon the prayer of the defendant, instead of awarding a return of the distress shall proceed to inquire touching the sum in arrears for such rent, at the time of such distress taken, or the value of the goods or chattels distrained, and five days' notice being given to the plaintiff or his attorney of the time of making such inquiry; and on the demand of either party, the court shall award a venire for a jury to inquire of the matters above mentioned; and the hearing shall be had as in other cases of trial by jury; and if there be no demand for a jury, the inquiry shall be by the court, and the defendant shall have judgment to recover against the plaintiff the arrearages of such rent, in case the goods and chattels distrained shall amount to that value; and in case they shall not amount to that value, then so much as the value of the goods and chattels so distrained shall amount to, together with his full costs of suit, and, in addition to any remedy on the bond, shall have execution against the goods and chattels of the defendant, and for want of such goods and chattels, an execution against the body of the defendant in the nature of a capias ad satisfaciendum; if on a trial of the cause in cases arising under this section, the finding of the court, or jury, be in favor of the defendant on the merits of the case, the court or jury shall thereupon forthwith make like inquiry as in this section above provided, and the defendant shall have the like judgment and execution as in this section is provided.

137. In all cases, except where the goods and chattels shall be taken as a distress for rent, if the plaintiff shall be nonsuit before issue joined, or for not bringing on the trial, and the goods have not been redelivered to the defendant, instead of awarding a return of the goods and chattels, the court, upon a suggestion of property in the defendant, may ascertain the value of the goods and chattels and the damages of the defendant by an inquiry, either by the court, or a jury if one be demanded by either party; and if upon the trial of an issue of property in the defendant, the court, or the jury if one shall find against the plaintiff, the court, or the jury if there be a jury, shall on the request of the defendant find the value of the property of the defendant in such goods and chattels and his damages and judgment shall be thereupon entered for the defendant for such sum, and defendant, besides any remedy on the bond, shall have execution against the defendant's goods and chattels, and for want of same, execution against defendant's body, in the nature of a capias ad satisfaciendum; provided that five days' notice of the time of making such inquiry shall have been given by defendant to plaintiff or his attorney; and if a jury be demanded by either party the court shall award a venire for a jury; and the hearing shall be had as in other cases, whether the hearing be by a jury, or by the court.

Court may award writ of inquiry.

Judgment thereon.

Execution.

138. In all actions of replevin, except where the taking was as a distress for rent, if the property replevied shall have been delivered by the constable or sergeant-at-arms to the party against whom the issue of property shall be found, the party succeeding on such issue may, instead of pursuing his remedy for the damages, by execution or by action on the bond, apply to the court in which the action is pending, for an order that the said goods and chattels be restored to him; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the court in its discretion to make an order that the said goods and chattels be delivered to the party in whom the property therein has been found, and to enforce the performance of such order by a writ in the nature of a writ of restitution, or by an attachment as for contempt; and the party succeeding in such action, may, notwithstanding such order, recover his costs in the suit by execution as in other cases.

When property delivered by officer to party against whom issue of property is found.

139. If the plaintiff be nonsuit, or a verdict be found in favor of the defendant, the defendant shall recover his damages and costs against the plaintiff if the plaintiff would have recovered damages and costs, if he had succeeded in the action.

When defendant may recover damages and costs.

Demand and refusal of defendant.

140. In cases where the property has been delivered to the plaintiff by the officer, if the defendant does not appear and make defence, but suffers judgment to be entered by default, there shall be no judgment for damages or costs, except in case of a demand being made in writing before the commencement of the action, and the refusal of the defendant to deliver the property in pursuance thereof; and in such case the plaintiff shall be at liberty to suggest the facts upon the record, and instead of taking judgment by default, may enter a discontinuance of the action without costs.

Costs assessed on replevin
bonds.

141. In actions upon replevin bonds, the costs taxed in the original actions shall be included as part of the damages to be assessed therein.

If officer die,
etc., bond assigned by successor.

142. When any constable, or sergeant-at-arms, shall have taken any bond by virtue of this act, and such constable, or sergeant-at-arms, shall die, abscond or remove out of the state before assigning such bond, it shall be lawful for any successor in office of such constable, or sergeant-at-arms, by order of the court in which the action was brought, to assign such bond in writing, under his hand and seal, to the party entitled to the same, or to his lawful representatives, who are hereby authorized, if the said bond shall become forfeited, to bring an action and recover thereon in his or their own names.

In case plaintiff does not require delivery of property.

143. If the plaintiff does not require the delivery to him of the property in question, the constable to whom the process shall issue, shall, if so directed in writing by the plaintiff or his attorney, serve the process as in other cases, without taking possession of or delivering the property, and upon the process being returned into court, the cause shall be tried and determined as other causes in said court, and upon judgment being entered awarding possession of the property in question to the plaintiff, an order may be made by the court as a part of the judgment, directing the constable to take possession of and deliver the property in question in accordance with such judgment, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the officer so directed to execute such order and deliver the property to the party to whom it has been so awarded; in the cases provided for in this section no bond shall be required of the plaintiff unless ordered by the court; the order of the court shall be a justification to the officer for the delivery of the property; and if in any action it shall appear to the court that parties not before the court have some ownership in the property replevied, the court may require a bond or other security for their protection before awarding the property to the plaintiff or other persons.

Order of court to justify officer.

144. Where a constable, or sergeant-at-arms, shall take a bond, conditioned for the return of the goods and chattels mentioned in any writ of replevin, in case a return shall be awarded in such suit, and it shall appear to the court that the condition of the said bond has been fulfilled, it shall be lawful for a judge thereof, either in term time or vacation, to direct that said bond be delivered up to the plaintiff to be canceled.

Cancellation of bond.

145. Whenever a warehouseman at the time any goods or chattels are placed on storage with him shall obtain from the party placing such goods or chattels on storage a statement in writing that such goods are the sole and absolute property of the bailor aforesaid, and in any action of replevin thereafter brought in any court for the recovery of such goods or chattels by any person other than the bailor aforesaid, no costs of suit shall be adjudged, taxed or recovered against said warehouse keeper in any action aforesaid, whenever judgment is obtained against the defendant in such action.

Regarding warehousemen.

TRIAL.

146. If the defendant does not appear at the time and place expressed in the summons, or recognizance, and no sufficient reason shall be assigned to the judge why the defendant does not appear, and if, where the process is a summons, it shall further appear by the return endorsed thereon that the summons was duly served, the court may proceed to hear and determine the cause in the absence of such defendant and render judgment therein.

Trial to proceed if defendant is absent without sufficient reason.

147. When the parties in any suit to be instituted by virtue of this act shall appear at the place and the time expressed in the summons or at the return of the warrant, or at the time of appearance mentioned in the Proceedings when parties appear.

recognizance, or the time fixed for trial in any case, the court shall proceed to hear and examine their respective allegations and proofs and render judgment in the cause, unless the judge shall think it proper to adjourn the trial.

When adjournment may be had.

Proviso.

148. Any district court in which a suit or proceeding is instituted by virtue of this act may, to prevent fraud or surprise on either side, or on reasonable cause being assigned by or in behalf of either party, adjourn the trial to such time as may be fixed by the court; or if either of the parties to a suit cannot on the day set for trial safely go to trial for the want of a material witness in the cause, whom he shall name, and thinks he can produce on a future day and shall file an affidavit setting forth such facts, the court may adjourn the trial to any future day to be fixed by it on payment of costs by the party who makes application for the same; provided, however, if defendant shall file a set-off on the first adjourned day and plaintiff shall allege surprise, the court may adjourn the cause and require defendant to pay plaintiff's witness fees for the day; any district court shall also have power, at the request of either plaintiff or defendant, or in their absence, to order a case to be marked "not moved"; in such case either party may bring said cause to trial by directing the clerk of said court to put said case on the list for a certain day, and by serving the adverse party personally, or his or her attorney who has appeared in said cause, with a written notice of the day fixed for said trial at least five days in advance thereof, proof of which service shall be filed with the clerk of said court; in case said adverse party be a corporation said service shall be made upon the president or other head officer thereof, or attorney thereof as hereinbefore directed.

Trial by jury may be demanded.

Qualifications of jurors.

149. Either party may demand a trial by jury, and if a jury is demanded a venire shall be issued to summon a jury of six men, and no more, if the debt, demand or matter in dispute does not exceed the sum of fifty dollars, or a jury of twelve men if the debt, demand or matter in dispute exceed the sum of fifty dollars, being citizens of this state above the age of twenty-one years and under the age of sixty-five years, and in no wise akin to the plaintiff or defendant, nor interested in the suit, to be and appear before the said court at such time and place as shall be expressed in the venire, to make a jury for the trial of the action between the parties mentioned therein; and the constable, or sergeant-at-arms, shall, at the return of the said venire, return, annexed thereto, a panel containing the names of the jurors whom he shall have summoned by virtue thereof; and if, on the return of the venire, it shall appear that one or more of the jurors are disqualified to serve, or do not appear then, it shall be lawful for the constable, or sergeant-at-arms, who served the same, by order of the court, immediately to summon others who shall serve in their stead; unless a demand for a trial by jury shall be made at least one day before the time fixed for the trial, the demand for trial by jury shall be deemed to be waived, but the judge of any such court may, in his discretion, grant a venire, notwithstanding the failure of a demand as hereinbefore specified.

Return of names of jurors.

150. If the defendant shall file a set-off, the plaintiff shall not be permitted to discontinue his suit, or suffer a judgment of nonsuit, without the consent of the defendant; provided, the defendant shall have filed an affidavit at the time of filing his set-off that same is not filed for the purpose of delay, and that the plaintiff is indebted to him in a certain sum, which shall be stated in the affidavit; but the case shall be heard on motion of the defendant, if the plaintiff neglect or refuse to move the same, and if it shall appear upon evidence produced by the defendant that the plaintiff is indebted to him or that defendant is entitled to a judgment in his favor, judgment shall be rendered in favor of the defendant for the amount due him, or such judgment shall be rendered as the defendant shall be entitled unto on a determination of the matter by the court.

If set-off filed, entitled, shall be received in evidence, with the same effect as if the plaintiff's books or accounts were produced and proved; provided, such copy and statement be accompanied by an affidavit or affidavits setting forth that the copy is a true copy of said original entries, and that all the credits and allowances to which the defendant is entitled appear on such statement, or in case the defendant is not entitled to any, then setting forth that the defendant is not entitled to any credits or allowances, and that the sum of money or balance claimed by the plaintiff is justly due and owing to him.

Proof of partnership.

152. When a copy of said entries may be used by the plaintiff, it shall be competent to prove any partnership or incorporation by affidavit, and it shall also be competent to prove by affidavit any partnership or incorporation in any other suit or proceeding which may be proved by affidavit under any of the provisions of this act.

Proof of notes, checks, etc.

153. In actions upon promissory notes, bills of exchange, checks, drafts, or other written contracts, whether simple or under seal, and in all other actions of contract for the payment of money only, when the damages or sum recoverable are a mere matter of calculation or can be readily ascertained if the defendant does not appear at the hearing, or if he appears and consents thereto, the plaintiff may prove his case by affidavit; the affidavit or affidavits shall contain a copy of any writing or writings sued on, if any there be, and shall set forth and aver such facts and circumstances as would warrant a recovery in case such facts and circumstances were proved by witnesses.

What affidavit shall contain.

Proceedings where proof made by affidavit.

154. In all cases in which proof is made by affidavit, it must appear by affidavit that the affiant or affiants have competent knowledge of the fact or facts sworn to, and in actions upon promissory notes, bills of exchange, checks, drafts, or other written contracts, simple or under seal, for the payment of money only, such notes, bills, checks, drafts or other contracts must be produced at the hearing or their non-production accounted for by affidavit.

Defendant may pay into court certain amount.

155. It shall be lawful for any defendant, within such time as shall be directed by the rules made for regulating the practice of the said courts, to pay into court such sum of money as he shall think in full satisfaction for the demand of the plaintiff, together with the costs incurred by the plaintiff up to the time of such payment, and notice of such payment shall be communicated by the clerk to the plaintiff or his attorney, by the post, or by causing the same to be delivered at his usual place of abode or business, and said sum of money shall be paid to the plaintiff; but if the plaintiff shall elect to proceed, and if he shall recover no further sum in the action than shall have been so paid into court, the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant the costs incurred by him in said action after such payment, which costs may be collected as other costs are collected in said court.

Plaintiff may proceed, however.

156. When a warrant to take the body of any defendant shall issue out of any district court in this state, it shall be lawful for the defendant, upon the trial of said cause, to give testimony as to the truth of the affidavits upon which the order for the warrant was made; and if it shall appear that the defendant was not, in fact, guilty of the fraud alleged, it shall be the duty of the court to so certify upon the record of the court, and to make order in said cause that no execution to take the body shall issue against the defendant if a judgment pass against him, and in case such an order be made only an execution against the goods and chattels of the defendant shall issue.

When warrant against body of defendant may issue.

157. To the jurors, and each of them, who shall be returned to try the said cause the clerk shall administer the following oath or affirmation:

Form of oath to jurors.

158. To every witness produced at the said trial the said clerk shall administer the following oath or affirmation:

To witness.

“You do swear, in the presence of Almighty God (or do affirm, as the case may require), that the evidence you shall give to the court and jury in this matter in difference between ———, plaintiff, and ———, defendant, shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.”

To officer.

159. To the constable or sergeant-at-arms who shall be appointed to attend the jury, the clerk shall administer the following oath or affirmation :

“ You do swear, in the presence of Almighty God (or do affirm, as the case may require), that you will to the utmost of your ability, keep every person sworn (or affirmed) on this jury together in some private or convenient place, without meat or drink, water excepted ; that you will not suffer any person to speak to them, nor speak to them yourself, except by order of the court, unless it be to ask them whether they have agreed on their verdict, until they have agreed on their verdict.”

Disagreement.

160. If the jury disagree, other writs of venire may issue in the same cause until a verdict is obtained.

AMENDMENTS OF DEFECTS AND ERRORS.

Defects and errors in proceedings may be amended.

161. In order to prevent the failure of justice by reason of mistakes and objections of form, it shall be lawful for any district court or the court of common pleas, on an appeal taken thereto, at all times, to amend all defects and errors, in any suit or proceeding, whether there is anything in writing to amend by or not, and whether the defect or error be that of the party applying to amend by or not, and all such amendments may be made with or without costs and upon such terms as to the court may seem fit ; and all such amendments as may be necessary for the purpose of determining in the existing suit the real question in controversy between the parties shall be so made.

Officer may amend defective return

162. If the constable's or sergeant-at-arm's return to any summons, warrant or process be defective, and such officer has in point of fact complied with all the requirements of this act in serving such writ, whether the defendant appears or does not appear, and whether he objects or does not object, such constable may amend his return in such manner as to make it conform to the fact, at any time before the entry of judgment.

JUDGMENT.

163. If the plaintiff other than executors or administrators in any action shall be nonsuited or shall discontinue or withdraw his action without the consent of the defendant where he may lawfully do so, judgment shall be given against such plaintiff for the costs which have accrued, or if such plaintiff shall appear to owe, or be indebted to the defendant, then judgment shall be given against him for the debt, or damages and costs, as the case may require.

When judgment shall be given against plaintiff.

164. Any person may appear before any district court and confess, under oath, that he is indebted to any person by him named in any sum by him specified and within the jurisdiction of the court, and thereupon judgment shall be entered against the debtor and in favor of such creditor for the amount so confessed to be due, with costs; provided, that an affidavit shall first be made by the plaintiff, his attorney or agent, and filed, that the true consideration of the bill, bond, deed, note or other instrument of writing, or demand, or contract for which the judgment is confessed, is justly and honestly due and owing to the person or persons to whom the judgment is confessed, and that the said judgment is not confessed to answer any fraudulent intent or purpose, or to protect the property of the defendant from his other creditors.

Confession of judgment.

Proviso.

165. Judgment by confession on bond and warrant of attorney may be entered against a defendant, but unless an affidavit shall first be made by the plaintiff, his attorney or agent, of the true consideration of the bill, bond, deed, note or other instrument of writing or demand, for which the judgment is confessed, which affidavit shall further set forth that the debt or demand for which the judgment is confessed is justly and honestly due and owing to the person or persons to whom the judgment is confessed, and that the said judgment is not confessed to answer any fraudulent intent or purpose, or to protect the property of the defendant from his other creditors, which affidavit shall be filed with the clerk, such judgment shall not operate or have any effect against any person or persons not parties in said action, but shall be binding and have its full effect so far as relates to the parties in the suit only.

Affidavit on judgment by confession.

Sum due on bond or contract and not the penalty to be taken.

166. When an action shall be brought on a bond, bill or other contract containing a penalty, or if any bond, bill or contract with such penalty as aforesaid shall be set off by the defendant in any action, the sum really due on such bond, bill or contract, and not the penalty, shall be deemed and taken to be the debt due, and judgment shall be entered for the amount ascertained to be due, without regard to the amount of such penalty, and where the condition of such bond is for the performance of more than a single act, an action brought thereon in respect of the breaches occurring before the commencement of such action shall not be a bar to the bringing of any other action or actions for breaches occurring after the commencement of such action.

suit.

167. Every district court shall have power to nonsuit the plaintiff in every case in which satisfactory proof shall not be given entitling either plaintiff or defendant to the judgment of said court.

Fees.

171. It shall not be necessary, before obtaining from the clerk of the district court the statement for docketing, that execution shall issue out of and be returned into the district court, but the statement may be made and taken at any time after judgment in the district court, and be of the same force and effect as if execution had been issued and returned as now required by law; but if execution has been issued, said statement for docketing shall not be made and taken before a return shall have been made to said execution.

Statement made any time after judgment in district court.

172. Such judgment shall from the time of such docketing in the court of common pleas operate as a judgment obtained in a suit originally commenced in said court, and satisfaction thereof may be entered in the same manner and upon the same evidence as is now provided by law in case of judgments rendered in the courts of common pleas, and execution may issue thereon out of such court of common pleas, which shall be of the same effect as to the property of the judgment debtor, either personal or real, as if issued on a judgment originally obtained in such court of common pleas, upon a suit commenced therein.

Operation of docketed judgments.

173. After such judgment shall be docketed in the court of common pleas, no execution shall issue thereon out of any district court, nor shall any proceedings be had thereon except the due and proper granting of a new trial, an appeal or certiorari; no judgment shall be allowed to be docketed after the granting of a new trial, an appeal or certiorari, and pending the determination thereof; in case a judgment shall have been docketed as aforesaid before the granting of a new trial, appeal or certiorari, no execution shall issue thereon out of the court of common pleas pending the final determination of said proceeding.

Revival of docketed judgments.

174. Every judgment docketed as herein directed may be revived by scire facias in the court of common pleas in the same manner, in the like cases and with the like effect, as if said judgment had been obtained in a suit commenced in that court.

Alphabetical index of docket.

175. The clerk of the court of common pleas shall make a complete alphabetical index to the docket in which said judgments are to be entered, and said docket shall be a public record, to which all persons desiring to examine the same shall have access.

Proceedings in case of appeal or certiorari.

176. If any judgment recovered in any district court shall be removed by appeal or certiorari, and the necessary bond be perfected, and such judgment shall, either before or after such removal, be docketed as herein provided, execution from the court of common pleas in which said judgment is docketed shall be stayed and suspended until the final determination of such appeal or certiorari.

Substance of determination to be entered on margin of docket.

177. 1. Any person being a coparcener, joint tenant or tenant in common in any tracts of land within this state, may apply by petition to any justice of the supreme court or judge of any circuit court or court of common pleas of the county wherein such lands may lie, for a partition of such tract or tracts of land ; whereupon the said justice or judge shall ascertain the number of equal shares or parts in which such tract or tracts were, or at the time of such application are, held by the original coparceners, joint tenants or tenants in common, and shall nominate three persons not interested in the said land, as commissioners, to make partition of such tract or tracts into as many parts or shares as the same was originally held ; and the said justice or judge shall thereupon order an advertisement to be inserted in one of the public newspapers of this state, and in such other public newspapers or places as the said justice or judge shall direct, for four weeks successively, at least once in each week, to the following or like effect, he or they making such alterations or additions as the nature of the case may require :

Nomination of commissioners.

By ———, justice of the supreme court of New Jersey, or judge of the circuit court or the court of common pleas of the county of ——— :

Notice is hereby given that, on application to me by ———, of ———, who claims an undivided ——— part of all that tract of land (giving a description of the tract or tracts intended to be divided), I have nominated A. B., C. D. and E. F. commissioners to divide the said tract (or tracts) of land into ——— equal shares or parts ; and unless proper objections are stated to me at ———, on the ——— day of ——— next (which is to be at least thirty days from the date of the notice), the said A. B., C. D. and E. F. will then be appointed commissioners to make partition of the said land, pursuant to an act entitled "An act concerning partition." Given under my hands this _____ day of _____.

2. If no objections are made before the said justice or judge, on the day appointed by him for that purpose, to the persons nominated as commissioners, then the said justice or judge shall, in writing, under his hand and seal, appoint the persons so nominated to be commissioners to divide the said land, pursuant to the directions prescribed in this act; and the said justice or judge shall, in the said writing, describe the tract or tracts so to be divided, and direct the number of parts or shares into which the same is to be allotted; but if objections are made to the persons nominated as commissioners, or any of them, the said justice or judge shall then proceed to hear and determine such objections, and in case he finds them well founded, to appoint, under his hand and seal, other fit and disinterested persons in the room of those he may think proper to remove.

3. The said commissioners having taken the oath or affirmation hereinafter prescribed, shall cause a survey to be made in their presence of the tract or tracts to be divided, and shall then proceed to divide the same into the number of parts or shares directed by the said justice or judge in the writing containing their appointment; each part or share to contain one or more lots, as the commissioners may think proper, they having due regard in the partition to the situation, quantity, quality and advantages of each part or share, so that they may be equal in value as nearly as may be; and if the bounds of any tract or tracts so to be divided shall be controverted, the commissioners are hereby directed, if such controverted part is valuable, to separate the same from the uncontroverted part, and to make partition of the tract or tracts, in such manner that a proportion of the controverted part may be allotted to each share, as well as a proportion of the uncontroverted part; and the said commissioners, previous to the said survey, shall administer an oath or affirmation to the surveyor and chain-bearers, that they will well and truly perform

When two or more persons shall hold real estate as coparceners, joint tenants or tenants in common, any one or more of whom are minors under the age of twenty-one years, it shall and may be lawful for the orphans' court of the county in which such real estate may be, or for the prerogative court, when such real estate is situated in two or more counties, upon application by petition made by one or more of said coparceners, joint tenants or tenants in common, or by any person duly authorized in their behalf, or claiming under them or any of them, to order and direct a division of such real estate to be made between the said owners, in such shares and proportions as they may be entitled to by law; the metes and bounds of each share to be ascertained by three disinterested commissioners to be appointed by the court, whose report, made in writing under their hands, to any term of the said court after such division shall be made and approved by the said court shall be conclusive to all parties concerned; and a copy of the appointment of said commissioners, together with their report, shall be recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose in the office of the clerk of said court, and copies thereof, duly certified under the seal of said court, shall be evidence in all courts of law or equity.

Defects in form not to invalidate partitions or sales.

15. No partition of lands in this state heretofore made between coparceners, joint tenants or tenants in common, by order of any orphans' court in said state, nor any sale thereof by commissioners appointed to make such partition, shall be held or esteemed to be invalid by reason of any defect in the form of the application, or of any supposed want of power in said court to order or decree said partition or sale, where the said application for partition is in fact between coparceners, joint tenants or tenants in common, and the heir or heirs of any deceased coparcener, joint tenant or tenant in common, or any claiming under them, but the said partition and sale, if in other respects legal, shall and the same is hereby declared to be valid and effectual in law.

state, or of any city or county of this state, authorized by law to issue bonds, or on bonds secured by mortgage on real estate, or in such public or other securities as the court may approve, and to direct and control the custody of the securities which may be taken, from time to time, for any investment ordered; and also, either before or after an investment is ordered, at such time as the court may determine to order or decree a distribution of the share or interest, which any such person, if living, would be entitled to, among and to the person or persons interested in such proceeds, as are known to be living, in proportion to their interest therein, respectively, or to and among the person or persons who are, if it shall appear such person has died, entitled by law to receive the same as an heir or heirs; and the court may fix the time when it shall be supposed or deemed such person died; and may order refunding bonds to be given by or on behalf of any of the persons to whom any part of such share shall be distributed, to the clerk of the court and his successors in office, in such sum and with such condition, with or without security, as the court may direct.

29. It shall be lawful for the said court to control the custody of said refunding bonds; and on petition of any person or persons who shall make it appear to the satisfaction of said court that the petitioner or petitioners is or are entitled to the money secured by one or more of said refunding bonds, or any part thereof, to order that the money secured thereby be collected for the benefit of such person or persons, by and in the name of the clerk of the court who is hereby authorized to sue thereon, and in case of his death pending a suit thereon, the same may be continued in the name of his successor, and said court may dispose of the money collected thereon by order or decree, as to the said court may seem just and right; and the said court may order and decree the payment of such costs and expenses out of said share or interest at any time, as the court may deem necessary and expedient.

31. In all suits in partition heretofore or hereafter begun, in any of the courts of this state, wherein a sale of the lands sought to be partitioned is or shall be made, and any judgment or judgments are or shall be obtained against any of the distributees, their executors, administrators or legal representatives, at any time prior to the distribution of the proceeds of any such sale, such judgment creditor or creditors may, upon petition filed in such cause, have an order, and such court is hereby authorized to make the same, directing the payment of such judgment or judgments out of the proceeds of the sale of such share or shares against which the same would be a lien had such share or shares been owned by such debtor or debtors in severalty.

Land divided and residue sold.

32. In all proceedings for partition under this act, it shall and may be lawful to divide a part of the lands included in the application, and to sell the remainder thereof, whenever it shall appear by the report of the commissioners which shall designate the lands to be divided and those to be sold and by other satisfactory proof, that the whole of the lands cannot be divided among owners and proprietors without great prejudice to their interest.

Reports of sales may be made at special term.

33. All the courts in this state, exercising power under this act, are hereby authorized to receive reports of all sales made by their order or by the order of a justice or judge thereof, at any special term of said court, and to confirm such sales and order title to be made to the purchaser, and which shall be valid and effectual in law, as if made at any stated term of said court.

such creditors, except in the cases provided for in the next section.

Lien a charge only on assigned share.

55. Where the lien is on the undivided interest or estate of any of the parties, such lien, if partition be made of the premises, shall thereafter be a charge only on the share assigned to such party, and such share shall be first charged with its just proportion of the costs of the proceedings in partition in preference to any such lien.

The complainant in any such suit in partition may, at his or her election, make every creditor having a lien on the undivided interest or estate of any of the parties, by mortgage, judgment, decree, devise or otherwise, a party to the proceeding, and in such case the bill shall set forth the nature of such lien or incumbrance.

Court to direct creditor having lien be made party to proceedings.

57. Before the making of any order for the sale of the premises where the creditors having liens shall not have been made parties, the court, on the motion of either party, may admit any creditor having a lien on the undivided interest, share or estate of any of the parties, by mortgage, judgment, decree, devise or otherwise, a party to the proceeding, and may thereupon, by an order of reference for that purpose, direct a master of the court to ascertain and report whether the shares or interests in the premises of the parties in such suit, or any of them, are subject to any lien or incumbrance by mortgage, devise, judgment or decree, or otherwise, and if so, to what liens or incumbrances, and by whom they are held.

If it shall appear, by the proceedings in the suit or by such report, that there are any existing liens or incumbrances upon the estate, share or interest in the premises of any party named in the proceedings in said suit, the court shall, if it order sale, in the decree for sale direct the master or commissioners, as the case may be, to bring into the court of chancery and pay to the clerk thereof the portion of the moneys arising from the sale of the estate, share and interest of said party after deducting the portion of the costs, charges and expenses to which it shall be liable.

59. Any party in interest, either owner or incumbrancer, may apply to the court to order such moneys or such part thereof as he shall claim to be paid to him, which application shall be accompanied by his affidavit, stating, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, the true amount actually due on each incumbrance, the owner of such incumbrance and his residence, so far as known to such party; and it shall be also accompanied by proof, by affidavit, of the due service of a notice on each owner of any incumbrance, and on the owner of the share if the notice be given by an incumbrancer of the intention to make such application; if such owner reside in this state, the notice shall be a fourteen days' notice, at least, and shall be served personally, or, if he be absent from his residence, by leaving a copy there with some person of over the age of fourteen years; if the person to be notified reside out of this state, such notice shall be served on him or her personally, twenty days previous to the time named therein for making the application or by publishing the same in a newspaper (to be designated by the court) published in this state for four weeks successively, at least once in every week, and mailing a copy thereof to his address (if it can be ascertained) at least twenty days before the time named for the application.

Conveyance executed to be recorded, and a bar.

64. Any conveyance executed in pursuance of sale in partition, under proceedings in partition in the court of chancery, under and in pursuance of the provisions of this act, shall be recorded in the county where the premises are situate, and shall be a bar, both in law and equity, against all persons interested in such premises in any way, who shall have been parties in the said proceedings, and against all other persons claiming by, from or under such parties or any of them.

Where two or more parties to a suit now pending, or which may hereafter be commenced, in the court of chancery for the partition of lands, make it appear to the court that they desire to enjoy their respective shares of the whole or any part of said lands in common with each other, it shall be lawful for the court, in its discretion, to direct partition to be so made as to set off to them their shares of the lands partitioned, without partition as between themselves, to be held by them in common; and where any party to any such suit for partition is a minor, under the age of twenty-one years, it shall be lawful for the court, in its discretion, and if it shall appear to be for the benefit of such minor, to direct partition to be so made as to set off to such minor, and to any other party or parties to such suit who may consent thereto, their respective shares in the lands partitioned, without partition as between themselves, to be held by them in common.

One-third of net proceeds may be paid instead of invested.

66. In all partition cases in the court of chancery, where inchoate rights of dower in any lands are ordered to be sold therewith, instead of investing one-third of the net proceeds of the sale of the share or shares in such lands subject to such inchoate dower, as now directed by the thirty-ninth section of this act, it shall be lawful for the master or other officer making such sale, on executing to him a full release and discharge, duly acknowledged according to law, from the tenant in fee and his wife entitled to such inchoate right of dower, to pay to them the one-third of the net proceeds aforesaid; provided, however, that where the share or interest of the tenant in fee has been sold by judgment or otherwise, or become subject to any valid lien, then such payment shall not be made unless all such parties in interest shall join in such release and discharge.

Proviso.

Construction of this act.

95. The sections of this act from the seventy-fourth to the ninety-fourth section shall be construed by all courts according to the true intent and purpose thereof, which is declared to be to establish the use of local indexes for public records to land in the larger counties in population in this state, and thereby give to all future instruments required by law to be recorded or registered actual publicity upon the records, and give to the public facility of access thereto; and the courts are hereby directed to give such construction to this act as shall carry out such general purpose.

98. All acts and parts of acts, general, special or local, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed; provided, however, said repeal shall not revive any act heretofore repealed and shall not in any way affect, impair, limit, disturb, annul or take away any vested right, privilege, power or office, or any procedure actually taken or begun under the said acts hereby repealed, or any of them, but every such procedure taken or begun shall remain in full force and effect to all intents and purposes, except that such procedure begun shall be conducted as nearly as may be in accordance with the practice and procedure as changed or prescribed by this act and every office held by any appointee under any act hereby repealed, but which is substantially re-enacted hereby, shall be held by him under the provisions of this act.

upon such claim being so presented, it shall be the duty of such executor or administrator to pay the same, or so much thereof as there may be surplus in his hands for that purpose, in case he is satisfied that it is correct and ought to be paid, or, if he is not satisfied of the correctness of such claim, he shall notify such creditor to proceed forthwith to establish said claim by the judgment of some court of competent jurisdiction, and in such case the said executor or administrator shall not make any distribution or payment of such surplus money to or among the devisees or next of kin of said deceased without retaining in his hands a sum sufficient to pay the amount of such claim so presented by such creditor, with interest and costs, in case it shall be established by the judgment of a court, until such creditor shall have had an opportunity to establish the validity of said claim by the judgment of some competent court.

77. Any legacy or distributive share which shall not have been attached in the hands of the executor or administrator, or paid over to the person entitled to the same shall, notwithstanding such decree in bar of creditors, be assets in the hands of the executor or administrator for the payment of a ratable proportion of the debt or claim of any creditor who shall not have presented the same within the time limited; but such creditor in any action to charge such assets shall not recover any costs, and if judgment pass against him in such action, he shall pay costs.

78. Every executor or administrator, on the payment of any legacy or distributive share to the person entitled to the same, shall take a refunding bond therefor; which bond shall be filed in the surrogate's office of the county in which letters testamentary or of administration were granted; and any creditor, who may be barred by virtue of any decree of limitation, may, by order of the orphans' court, bring suit on such refunding bond in the name of the executor or administrator, but with the name of such creditor stated in the process and pleadings as the prosecutor thereof, and may recover thereon the proportion of his debt which ought to be paid out of the legacy or distributive share for which said bond was given, but shall not recover costs in such suit; and if judgment be given for the defendant therein, he shall have judgment against the prosecutor for his costs of suit, and not against the plaintiff; but there shall not be recovered on such bond, in the whole, a greater amount than the legacy or share actually received by the person by or for whom it was given; provided, that nothing herein contained shall enable any person to recover any debt or demand barred by any limitation other than said decree.

79. In any action by a creditor to charge a legacy or distributive share as assets in the hands of an executor or administrator for the payment of a ratable proportion of his debt, it shall be presumptive evidence that such legacy or distributive share, if not attached, was not paid to the legatee or distributee, if it appear that at the commencement of the suit no refunding bond had been filed therefor; and in such case such executor or administrator shall be chargeable with such legacy or distributive share as assets, unless it shall be proved, that such legacy or distributive share was actually paid over before the commencement of such suit, and such executor or administrator shall at the time of pleading such decree in bar file therewith a proper refunding bond, and pay the plaintiff in such action his costs of suit which shall have accrued before plea filed.

Variance may be amended.

the defendant cannot be prejudiced thereby in his defense on such merits, to order such indictment to be amended according to the proof both in that part of the same where such variance occurs, and in every other part thereof which it may become necessary to amend, on such terms as to postponing the trial, to be had before the same or another jury, as such court shall think reasonable; and in case such trial shall be had on an issue from the supreme court the order for such amendment shall be endorsed on the postea and returned together with the record, and thereupon all papers or records of the court shall be amended accordingly, and in all other cases the order for the amendment shall be indorsed on or filed with such indictment among the records of the court; and in case any error in form shall exist in said indictment, or in the manner of describing the offense intended to be charged, like amendment shall be made, on like terms; provided, that in case any trial shall be postponed on such amendment, the obligation of all recognizances shall continue, as in case of postponement from day to day, or a new recognizance may be required, at the discretion of the court.

as in case of struck juries ordered in the trial of civil causes, except as herein otherwise provided.

76. When a rule for a struck jury shall be entered in any criminal case the court granting such rule may, on motion of the prosecutor, or of the defendant, or on its own motion, select from the persons qualified to serve as jurors in and for the county in which any indictment was found, whether the names of such persons appear on the sheriff's book of persons qualified to serve as jurors in and for such county or not, ninety-six names, with their places of abode, from which the prosecutor and the defendant shall each strike twenty-four names in the usual way, and the remaining forty-eight names shall be placed by the sheriff in the box in the presence of the court, and from the names so placed in the box, the jury shall be drawn in the usual way.

Jury may view lands or place.

78. The supreme court may, in its discretion, order trials by foreign juries in all criminal cases which may have been commenced in that court, or may be removed to that court from any other court, and whenever in their opinion a fair and impartial trial cannot be had before a jury of the proper county, may, upon motion in behalf of the state, or on the part of any defendant, order any indictment, found at any court of oyer and terminer, or at any court of quarter sessions, to be tried by a foreign jury in the court and county in which such indictment was found.

Proviso.

In other cases.

81. Upon the trial of any indictment where twenty peremptory challenges are not allowed, the defendant or defendants and the attorney-general or the prosecutor of the pleas shall each be entitled to challenge peremptorily ten of the general panel of jurors summoned and returned by the sheriff or other officer; and upon the trial of any indictment in cases where the defendant is entitled to twenty peremptory challenges, the attorney-general or prosecutor of the pleas shall be entitled to challenge peremptorily, and without assigning any cause, twelve of the jurors returned for the trial of such indictment, and upon the trial of any indictment for which a struck or foreign jury shall be summoned and returned, five peremptory challenges each shall be allowed to the defendant and to the state; challenges in all cases may be made at any time before the jury is sworn; all chal-

Examination.

6. If the person charged shall, before such examination is entered upon, deny that he is the father of such bastard child, or of such child likely to be born a bastard, and shall demand a trial by jury, it shall be the duty of said magistrate to issue a venire facias to any police officer or constable of said county to summon a jury of twelve men competent as jurymen, according to law, to be and appear before said magistrate at such time and place as shall be expressed in such writ, to make a jury for the trial of such accusation made against said person, of being the father of such child; a return of which jurors shall be made, as in cases arising under the act for the trial of small causes, and as to any or all of whom the same right of challenge shall belong to both parties, that exist in civil cases at law; and said magistrate shall proceed to impanel and swear such jury, and swear the witnesses produced to establish and rebut such accusation, and the said accusation shall thereupon be tried, as in cases in courts of common law before such jury.

10. Upon such bond being executed to the satisfaction of said magistrate, he shall discharge such person from arrest; but if he refuses or neglects to execute such bond, or to pay the costs and charges so certified, he shall be committed by such magistrate to the common jail of the county, there to remain until he shall pay such costs and charges and execute such bond, or until discharged according to law.

11. The penalty of every bond which shall be taken for the appearance of any such reputed father, or for indemnifying the townships, shall, in all cases, be such a sum as shall insure a full indemnity to every township in the state for the expense that has been, or which may be, incurred by reason of supporting such bastard and its mother during her confinement and the costs of all proceedings connected therewith.

Penalty of bonds.

III. APPEAL TO SESSIONS.

12. Any person so charged as aforesaid, or any township, that may deem himself or itself aggrieved by the finding of the magistrate or of the jury, or order of any magistrate, may, within five days thereafter, upon written notice to such magistrate, appeal therefrom to the court of quarter sessions of the county wherein such trial was had, and such case may be brought to hearing before said court on ten days' notice to the other side, or as soon thereafter as said court can hear the same, and such appeal shall not operate as a stay to any order of filiation made by the magistrate before whom such case was tried.

Appeal.

13. In case of appeal the said magistrate shall send any bond which has been taken from the person charged, to the clerk of said court of quarter sessions, immediately after receiving said notice of appeal, together with the order of filiation and sustenance aforesaid and all the papers connected therewith.

Magistrate to send up papers.

14. The said court to which such appeal shall be made shall have full cognizance of the case, and shall proceed to hear the allegation and proofs of the respective parties, the burthen of proof being upon the township as it was before said magistrate; if the mother of any bastard be dead, or is insane, or has left the state, the testimony given by her on her examination shall be received in the same manner as if she were present and testified to the same; the court shall have power to adjourn the hearing from time to time, on sufficient

When discharged.

15. If on the trial of said appeal it is decided that the said person charged is not the father of such bastard or child likely to be born a bastard, he shall be forthwith discharged from his imprisonment, or if he has given a bond it shall be cancelled by order of the court; but if the decision be against the party charged, the court shall proceed to examine the order of filiation or sustenance, and may reduce or increase the sum directed by such order to be paid; but the same shall not be quashed for any defects in the form thereof, but may be amended by the court according to the facts and justice of the case.

If adverse.

Not quashed for defect of form.

16. If the decision of such court is against the person so charged, he shall pay such costs and expenses as the court shall adjudge to be paid by him forthwith, and shall enter into a bond to the state of New Jersey in such amount as the court shall order, with approved surety or sureties, with a condition similar in substance with the condition set forth in section nine of this act; if he shall neglect or refuse to pay such costs and expenses and execute such bond, he shall be committed to the common jail of the county, there to remain until he shall pay the same and execute the bond aforesaid, or be discharged by said court in the manner hereinafter provided.

Upon failure, sent to jail.

If forfeited, bond to appear.

17. If the person against whom such decision was rendered shall depart the said court without paying such costs and expenses or executing the bond in the next preceding section required, or without being discharged by the said court, his said bond, with condition to appear, before the magistrate who issued the warrant, shall be thereby deemed to be forfeited, and may be prosecuted as directed in the next section.

IV. BONDS AND SUITS THEREON, ETC.

18. When any bond shall be taken as hereinafter mentioned, and any breach shall happen in the condition thereof, the same may be prosecuted by the prosecutor of the pleas of the county in which proceedings were originally taken under this act, or by the counsel or attorney of any township at whose instance such proceedings were originally taken, which suit shall be in the name of the state of New Jersey, and judgment, if it passes against the defendants, shall be for the penalty thereof; in such actions the breaches shall be assigned as in actions brought on bonds with condition other than for the payment of money, and the same proceedings shall be had in all respects; it shall not be necessary to prove the actual payment of money by any township or overseer of the poor, but the neglect to pay any sum which shall have been ordered to be paid by any competent authority under this act, shall be deemed a breach of the conditions of such bond, and the amount of damages to be assessed in such case shall be the sum which was so ordered to be paid, and which was withheld up to the time of the commencement of such suit, with interest thereon; for any breaches of such bond which shall happen after the recovery of any damages or the commencement of any suit, a scire facias may issue, upon which the damages shall be assessed from time to time in manner aforesaid; and all moneys which shall be collected on such bond shall be paid to such township or townships as may have incurred or been put to expense in supporting said bastard or its mother during her confinement, or from costs therefrom arising; and the provisions of this section shall be applicable in all respects to all bonds heretofore taken, to perform any order of filiation, in the conditions of which bonds breaches may have happened or shall hereafter happen.

21. In making the examination hereby authorized, or at the trial, the mother of such bastard or the woman pregnant with such child may be compelled to testify and disclose the name of the father of such bastard or child likely to be born a bastard, and in case of her refusal the said magistrate or said court of quarter sessions may, after she is sufficiently recovered from her confinement, commit her to the common jail of the county as and for a contempt of court.

Overseer accountable.

23. Whenever a bastard shall be born in any of the poorhouses of this state, or shall be removed thereto, before any proceedings have been had by virtue of this act, proceedings may be had and taken for the better relief of the board of chosen freeholders, or other authority or authorities having the direction and government of such poorhouse, upon the application of any officer of such poorhouse, or of the keeper thereof, in the same manner as by this act may be had and done for the relief of the township in which a bastard is born.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY, }
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. }

In conformity with the custom, approved and followed by our forefathers through many generations, of devoting one special day in the year to public thanksgiving to Almighty God for the blessings with which He has blessed our land and people,

I, JOHN W. GRIGGS, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the twenty-fifth day of November, instant, to be observed as a day of thanksgiving, on which day I do recommend that the people assemble in their usual places of public worship, and with a due sense of the Divine mercies, give thanks for the blessings of National freedom, of liberty, of prosperity, of peace, concord and happiness, where-with a gracious Providence has blessed our State and Nation; and that with humble confession of shortcomings, prayer be made for a continuance of the Divine favor toward us.

[SEAL.]

Witness my hand and the great seal of the State of New Jersey, hereunto affixed. Done at Trenton, this ninth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

JOHN W. GRIGGS,

GEORGE WURTS,

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, On the fourth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, under "An act to repeal the charters of all corporations that have heretofore failed to pay state taxes imposed on them by law," approved March 26th, 1891, I did issue my proclamation on that date that the charters of certain corporations reported to the comptroller as in default in the payment of taxes imposed on them by law, were repealed and declared null and void;

AND WHEREAS, It is established to my satisfaction that the Mullica Hill and Woodstown Turnpike Company, one of the corporations named in said proclamation, has not refused or neglected to pay said tax within two consecutive years;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of section two of an act of the Legislature of this State, entitled "An act to amend an act concerning corporations, approved April seventh, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, which amendatory act was approved March twentieth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one," approved March 13th, A. D. 1893,

I, JOHN W. GRIGGS, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby correct the mistake of including the said Mullica Hill and Woodstown Turnpike Company in said proclamation, and do make the same known by this, my proclamation, to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

[SEAL.]

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, at Trenton, this fourth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

VOORHEES, President of the Senate, Acting Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby set apart Friday, the 29th day of April, 1898, as Arbor Day, and do recommend that that day be devoted by the people to the planting of forest trees and to appropriate exercises in the schools of the state.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, at Trenton, this 8th day of March, 1898.

FOSTER M. VOORHEES,
President of the Senate, Acting Governor.

By the Governor.

GEORGE WURTS,
Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, The Comptroller did, on the second day of May, 1898, under the provisions of an act entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act to provide for the imposition of state taxes upon certain corporations and for the collection thereof,' approved April eighteenth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four," which act was approved April 21, 1896, report to the Governor a list of all corporations coming within said act ;

AND WHEREAS, The following named corporations so reported had for two years next preceding such report failed, neglected or refused to pay the state taxes which had been assessed against them for the year 1895, under the laws of the State of New Jersey, and made payable into the State Treasury;

AND WHEREAS, Under the provisions of said act the charters of said corporations are made void and all powers conferred by law upon such corporations declared inoperative and void, unless the Governor gives further time for payment;

AND WHEREAS, The Governor has not given further time to the corporations so reported and hereinafter named for the payment of such taxes, and the same are still unpaid;

Therefore, I, FOSTER M. VOORHEES, President of the Senate, Acting Governor of the State of New Jersey, in pursuance of said act of the Legislature, do hereby issue this proclamation under said act, that the charters of the following named corporations so reported and in default, to wit:
